

Year: Year 5

Subject: PSHE

Title: Celebrating Difference

Why do we like to belong?

What key knowledge do I need to have before this unit?

What is bullying?

Who to speak to if I/someone is being bullied.

I understand that sometimes people make assumptions about boys and girls (stereotypes)

I can recognise what is right and wrong and know how to look after myself

I understand that it is OK to be different from other people and to be friends with them

Key outcomes:

What I need to know by the end of this unit of work:

- I understand that cultural differences sometimes cause conflict.
 - I understand what racism is.
- I understand how rumour-spreading and name-calling can be bullying behaviours.
 - I can explain the difference between direct and indirect types of bullying.
 - I can compare my life with people in the developing world.
 - I can understand a different culture from my own.

Key knowledge:	Key Vocabulary:	Definition:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Know what culture means. • Know that differences in culture can sometimes be a source of conflict. • Know what racism is and why it is unacceptable. • Know that rumour spreading is a form of bullying on and offline. • Know external forms of support in regard to bullying e.g. Childline. • Know that bullying can be direct and indirect. • Know how their life is different from the lives of children in the developing world. 	Racism Homophobic cyber bullying culture discrimination rumour banter conflict	prejudice, discrimination, or antagonism by an individual, community, or institution against a person or people on the basis of their membership of a particular racial or ethnic group having or showing a dislike of or prejudice against gay people Cyberbullying is the use of technology to harass, threaten, embarrass, or target another person the ideas, customs, and social behaviour of a particular people or society the unjust or prejudicial treatment of different categories of people, especially on the grounds of ethnicity, age, sex, or disability a currently circulating story or report of uncertain or doubtful truth the playful and friendly exchange of teasing remarks a serious disagreement or argument, typically a protracted one