

Title: What did Jesus do to save human beings?

What key knowledge do I need to have before this unit?

- Christians believe in one God who created the world.
- Christians believe Jesus is God in human form (Incarnation).
- Christians believe the Bible tells a big story from Creation to Jesus.
 - The Easter story tells about Jesus' death and resurrection.
- Christians believe Jesus taught people how to live and love others.

Key outcomes:

What I need to know by the end of this unit of work:

- Understand where Salvation fits in the big story of the Bible.
 - Retell the key events of Jesus' death and resurrection.
 - Explain why Christians believe Jesus' death was a sacrifice.
- Understand how Christians remember Jesus through Communion.
 - Explain how Jesus' sacrifice influences Christians today.
- Reflect on the idea of sacrifice in my own life and the world.

Key knowledge:

Christians read the Bible as one big story where humans need saving and Jesus brings salvation.

The Gospels tell the story of Jesus' death and resurrection.

Christians believe Jesus' death was "for us" and brought people back to God.

Christians interpret Jesus' death in different ways, including sacrifice for sin, taking punishment for others, and victory over evil and death.

Christians remember Jesus' sacrifice through Holy Communion (Eucharist). Bread and wine symbolise Jesus' body and blood.

Christians try to follow Jesus' example by sacrificing their own needs for others.

Some Christians have made big sacrifices for their faith and beliefs.
